CALL FOR JURIED COLLEGE FACULTY EXHIBITION AT THE AMA

Exhibition Will Be August 2-October 13, 2018 at the Albany Museum of Art

[For Release May 15, 2018 – Albany, GA] – The Albany Museum of Art is inviting college faculty to participate in Educators as Artists: Juried College Faculty Exhibition, which will open August 2 and run through October 13, 2018 in the AMA's East Gallery. The all-medium exhibition will be juried by artist and curator Didi Dunphy.

Faculty at Albany State University, Georgia Southwestern State University, Valdosta State University, Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College, Andrew College and Thomas College are invited to enter. All media will be accepted and submissions may be viewed online once the exhibition opens.

Dunphy currently holds several positions in Athens, including her roles as program supervisor of the Lyndon House Arts Center and curator of the Gallery@Hotel Indigo. She also maintains a thriving personal artistic practice. Dunphy recently completed a three-year term as commissioner of the Athens Cultural Affairs Commission.

College faculty members are invited to submit up to two digital images. Here are guidelines and FAQs:
