Champagne Blanc de Noirs Patrick Soutiran Brut. Ambonnay is a quaint village surrounded by enchanting soft hills and approximately 1000 acres of vineyards. One of the most celebrated Grand Cru villages of Champagne and the undisputed reign of Pinot Noir, where just 2.5 acres of vineyards can cost more than one million dollars. The Soutiran family has been here for decades, with their home and small cellar right in the middle of heaven. Their land occupies 8 acres from which they produce around 20,000 bottles per year. They are recoltant manipulant, which means using grapes that come only from their own land and preparing their own blend. An astonishing savoir-faire that derives from years and years of experience combined with a unique terroir.

Champagne Delavenne Grand Cru Brut Reserve. Champagne Delavenne is an amazing family-run business located in Bouzy, a delightful winegrowers village, located on the southern slopes of Reims Mountain. One of the most renowned villages for quality of the vines and soil, the reputation of the wine produced here dates back to the time of the Sun King Louis XIV. The Bouzy terroir has been classified as a Grand Cru village since 1895 and today only 17 of the 320 villages that make up the Champagne region have received this classification.

Prosecco Superiore Cartizze Brut PDC. The wine has a straw yellow color with greenish highlights. Brilliant and crystalline, it has a fine and persistent perlage. On the nose you find the beautiful, classic aromas of pear and peach, and thanks to the oxygenation these transform into more citrusy notes, with orange and grapefruit, and then finish with hints of acacia honey. In the mouth it is dry and direct, with a slender body and a pleasant freshness that is accentuated by the excellent savory note. The elegant finish leaves a pleasant note of bitter almonds. This is a top quality Prosecco.

Prosecco Superiore Lucchetta Calpena Extra Dry. The color is pale yellow with slightly greenish highlights and a subtle perlage. On the nose there are fresh, herbal notes of sage and thyme, accompanied by white pulp fruit such as apple, peach and pear. The light notes of almonds are wonderful. In the mouth it is fresh, fairly soft, and savory, starting out with a light body that grows as you taste it, together with a nice creaminess. Still while in the mouth, thanks to the warmth, other citrus notes arrive that were hidden at first. A classic Prosecco, well made, pleasant, and easy to drink.
