“Highlighting Contemporary Art in Georgia” is one of a series of traveling exhibitions organized by the Georgia Museum of Art and the Lyndon House Arts Center that is dedicated to showcasing the talent and diversity of Georgia artists. This survey of work combines unique pieces and artists working with a variety of mediums and concepts. This program is supported in part by the W. Newton Morris Charitable Foundation, the Friends of the Georgia Museum of Art, and the Georgia Council for the Arts through the appropriations of the Georgia General Assembly.

“Picture This’, features a diverse group of artists experimenting in narrative painting. Each of their own stylistic interpretations, conceptual investigations, cultural messaging, and beauty are represented in this show...”
- Curator Didi Dunphy.

There are a number of artists in this exhibition whose work centers on cultural identity and human relationships. Artists have always explored the characteristics of personal and social identity in our day-to-day lives. How does the individual influence the whole, and vice versa? Art about identity serves an important role; it asks the viewer to question the systems and ideas around us that influence our perceptions, while also serving as a cathartic expression of something we all deal with, being human.

Globalrama | Works by Gregor Turk East Gallery | January 12 – April 1

Known for his public art installations, ceramic sculpture, photography, and mixed-media constructions, Gregor Turk often incorporates mapping imagery and cultural markings into his artwork. His response to his surroundings, whether in his hometown, Atlanta, or while traveling, serves as a major impetus for much of what he creates. Projects include producing a significant body of artwork resulting from hiking and biking the U.S./Canadian border, photographing blank billboards along Interstate 50, and making rubbings from text and imagery from the historical plaques and markers found in American cities.

“Through my art, I tend to focus on the fundamental qualities of mapping— the mysteriousness, inherent biases, cultural authoritativeness, and ability to simultaneously represent and distort reality.” - Gregor Turk

- b. Describe how each historic figure and the Creek and Cherokee adapted to and were influenced by their environments.

- c. Describe how the region in which these historic figures lived affected their lives and compare these regions to the region in which students live.
- d. Describe the regions in Georgia where the Creek and Cherokee lived and how the people used their local resources.

English/Language Arts

ELAGSE2RL1 Ask and answer such questions as who, what, where, when, why, and how to demonstrate understanding of key details in a text.

ELAGSE2RL2 Recount stories, including fables and folktales from diverse cultures, and determine their central message, lesson, or moral.

ELAGSE2RL3 Describe how characters in a story respond to major events and challenges.

ELAGSE2RL7 Use information gained from the illustrations and words in a print or digital text to demonstrate understanding of its characters, setting, or plot.

ELAGSE2RI2 Identify the main topic of a multi-paragraph text as well as the focus of specific paragraphs within the text.

ELAGSE2RI3 Describe the connection between a series of historical events, scientific ideas or concepts, or steps in technical procedures in a text

ELAGSE2RI5 Know and use various text features (e.g., captions, bold print, subheadings, glossaries, indexes, electronic menus, icons) to locate key facts or information in a text efficiently.

ELAGSE2RI6 Identify the main purpose of a text, including what the author wants to answer, explain, or describe.

ELAGSE2W2 Write informative/explanatory texts in which they introduce a topic, use facts and definitions to develop points, and provide a concluding statement or section.

ELAGSE2W3 Write narratives in which they recount a well-elaborated event or short sequence of events, include details to describe actions, thoughts, and feelings, use temporal words to signal event order, and provide a sense of closure.

ELAGSE2SL1 Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about grade 2 topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.

- a. Follow agreed-upon rules for discussions (e.g., gaining the floor in respectful ways, listening to others with care, speaking one at a time about the topics and texts under discussion).
- b. Build on others' talk in conversations by linking their comments to the remarks of others.
- c. Ask for clarification and further explanation as needed about the topics and texts under discussion.

ELAGSE2SL2 Recount or describe key ideas or details from written texts read aloud or information presented orally or through other media.

ELAGSE2SL3 Ask and answer questions about what a speaker says in order to clarify comprehension, gather additional information, or deepen understanding of a topic or issue.

ELAGSE2RI7 Explain how specific images (e.g., a diagram showing how a machine works) contribute to and clarify a text. ELAGSE2RI8 Describe how reasons support specific points the author makes in a text

ELAGSE2W8 Recall information from experiences or gather information from provided sources to answer a question.

ELAGSE2L6 Use words and phrases acquired through conversations, reading and being read to, and responding to texts, including using adjectives and adverbs to describe (e.g., When other kids are happy that makes me happy).

Information Processing Skills

3. Identify issues and/or problems and alternative solutions
4. Distinguish between fact and opinion
11. Draw conclusions and make generalizations

Pre-Visit Activity

Students are encouraged to review our Children’s Gallery Guide before arrival to the Albany Museum of Art. They will learn the word “identity” and how we each have our own unique self. Together, we will discuss the factors that go into creating our identity, such as our different cultures, our geography, and our external/internal influences. This guide will be shared with you along with this document, or you may request printed copies from the AMA to be picked up at our front desk.

We also ask that you discuss basic museum etiquette with your students ahead of arrival, i.e., looking with our eyes (not our hands), walking (not running), and using a low speaking voice in the galleries.

Field Trip Activities

- Students will be introduced to the role of museums in our community and why they are so important to us.
- They will then be shown a few key works from Picture This in the Haley Gallery, as well as works by Gergor Turk in the East Gallery. While examining these works, we will discuss concepts of self-identity, cultural identity, Indigenous Georgia cultures, and Georgia geography. Students will be encouraged to speak as a group, read wall labels aloud, and engage in analytical conversation with educators and peers.
- The guide will help the students with visual thinking strategies so that they may understand what the works are and why they were created.
- Students will create a work of art in the AMA classroom in response to the works in the galleries.
